Scope of your request

What information are you requesting access to?*

To whom it may concern,

Under the Freedom of Information Act 2016 (ACT), I am formally requesting access to documents held by the ACT Government relating to the flooding and stormwater system impacts in the Woden Valley area during the period 6–7 February 2026.

Specifically, I am requesting the following records:

Internal emails, memos, and correspondence between ACT Government directorates, agencies, or contractors regarding the flooding event in the Woden Valley area during 6–7 February 2026.

Incident reports, situation reports (SITREPs), and operational logs relating to stormwater overflow, drainage failures, or flooding impacts in the same period and location.

Engineering or infrastructure assessment reports relating to damage or performance of stormwater systems, drains, culverts, or related assets in the Woden Valley area.

Maintenance requests, “Fix My Street” / customer reports, or work orders generated as a result of flooding or stormwater issues during or immediately after the event.

Briefings prepared for senior executives or Ministers regarding the flood event and any response actions taken.

For clarity, I am not requesting personal information. If parts of this request are exempt, I request that the remaining non-exempt information be released where possible, and that exemptions be clearly identified under the FOI Act.
