

Dear [REDACTED]

Freedom of Information – Notice of Decision

I refer to your application under section 30 of the Freedom of Information Act 2016 (the FOI Act), received by the City and Environment Directorate (CED) on 11 March 2026. It is my understanding you are seeking access to the following information:

All documents related to changes made to parking arrangements at [REDACTED] the whole of Allott Place from 07/08/2021 onwards. This includes traffic survey data (all traffic monitoring results), all surveys conducted and all notifications of changes to parking and traffic arrangements sent to [REDACTED] including the inspection of [REDACTED] conducted by Ben Hobbs on 20/08/2021.

Timeframes

In accordance with section 40 of the FOI Act, CED was required to provide a decision on your access application within 30 working days. Under section 41 of the FOI Act, you agreed an additional amount of time to decide your application. Therefore, a decision is due on or by 12 May 2026.

Authority

I am an Information Officer appointed by the Director-General of the City and Environment Directorate under section 18 of the FOI Act to deal with access applications made under Part 5 of the FOI Act.

Decision on access

Under section 43(1)(d) of the FOI Act, a respondent agency may refuse to deal with an access application wholly or in part if the government information is already available to the applicant. Section 45 sets out the circumstances in which government information is already available to the applicant. Those circumstances include where the government information is available for purchase (section 45(g) of the FOI Act).

I have refused to deal with parts of your application under section 43(1)(d) and section 45 of the FOI Act, as information relating to “traffic survey data (all traffic monitoring results), all surveys conducted” is available for purchase.

I have been advised by Roads ACT that a traffic survey was undertaken in the area in 2024. Any reports from the survey can be requested separately as they relate to information that would normally attract a fee for service. Please email the details of your request for traffic survey data to Edward.Meredith@act.gov.au and you will be guided through the process.

A search for records held by CED has been completed and 25 records within the scope of your application have been identified. The records are listed in the schedule at Attachment A.

I have decided to:

- grant full access to 17 records.
- grant partial access to 8 records.

The reasons for my decision are detailed in the Statement of reasons section below. The records being released to you are provided at Attachment B with redactions applied to any information contrary to the public interest to release.

Statement of reasons

The FOI Act has a pro-disclosure bias, which requires information to be disclosed unless doing so would be contrary to the public interest. As an Information Officer, I am responsible for determining whether disclosure of the information within the scope of your application would be contrary to the public interest.

My assessment begins with Schedule 1 of the FOI Act, which outlines categories of information that are taken to be contrary to the public interest to disclose. If the information does not fall within any of these categories, I must then apply the public interest test under section 17 of the FOI Act. This test involves weighing the factors favouring disclosure against those favouring nondisclosure, as set out in Schedule 2.

In reaching my access decisions, I have taken the following into account:

- the FOI Act
- the information that falls within the scope of your application
- the Human Rights Act 2004
- the ACT Ombudsman FOI Guidelines

I confirm that I have not considered any of the factors listed in section 17(2) of the FOI Act, which outlines a list of considerations that must not be taken into account when applying the public interest test.

Schedule 1 – Information taken to be contrary to the public interest

- No relevant sections identified.

Schedule 2 – Public interest test

Factors favouring disclosure (Schedule 2.1)

- Section 2.1(a)(viii) - reveal the reason for a government decision and any background or contextual information that informed the decision.

In reviewing the information within the scope of your application, I consider that disclosure would reveal the reason for decisions regarding changes to parking arrangements at Allott Place, and the background and contextual information that informed the decisions. I have placed significant weight on this factor.

Factors favouring nondisclosure (Schedule 2.2)

- Section 2.2(a)(ii) - prejudice the protection of an individual's right to privacy or any other right under the Human Rights Act 2004.

Some of the records relevant to your application contain the personal information of individuals, including names and contact details of members of the public, and mobile numbers of ACT Government employees. I have considered that this information is not readily available to the public and has not otherwise been disclosed by CED. I further consider that this information has come to be held by CED with the expectation that it is handled in accordance with the Information Privacy Act 2014.

It is my view that this information if disclosed, could reasonably be expected to prejudice the protection of an individual's right to privacy under section 12 of the Human Rights Act 2004. I have placed substantial weight on this factor.

Balancing the factors

In balancing the factors favouring disclosure against those favouring nondisclosure, I have carefully considered the public interest in revealing the reasons for government decisions. I acknowledge that disclosure of certain information would advance these interests, particularly where it relates to providing the background and context surrounding the decisions.

However, I must also consider the strong public interest in protecting personal privacy. In several instances, the likelihood and degree of prejudice that could result from disclosure is significant.

On balance, I find that in the circumstances of this matter, the factors against disclosure carry greater weight than the factors favouring disclosure for the relevant information. As such, I have decided to withhold the information where the public interest against disclosure outweighs the public interest in favour of release.

Having applied the public interest test outlined in section 17 of the FOI Act, I have concluded that some information contained in the records is not in the public interest to disclose. Accordingly, I have redacted this specific information under section 50(2) of the FOI Act.

Consistent with the pro-disclosure intent of the FOI Act, I am satisfied that redacting only the information that is contrary to the public interest ensures compliance with the FOI Act while still providing access to the majority of the information held by CED within the scope of your application.

Processing charges are not applicable for this application because the number of pages released to you is below the charging threshold of 50 pages.
